

ART, MATERIALITY & REPRESENTATION

BRITISH MUSEUM & SOAS, 1- 3 JUNE 2018

© Paolo Fortis: Kuna wood carvings, San Blas Archipelago, Panama

The Royal Anthropological Institute is pleased to announce that a conference on 'Art, Materiality and Representation' will take place at the British Museum's Clore Centre and SOAS' Paul Webley Wing of Senate House. It will be jointly organised by the RAI, the BM's Department for Africa, Oceania and the Americas, SOAS' Department of Anthropology. The aim of the conference is to bring together an international field from all areas of anthropology, art and the museum world.

The call for panels opens on 21 April 2017 and closes 30 June 2017

The call for papers opens on 29 August 2017 and closes 8 January 2018

Registration opens 22 February 2018

Further information can be found on:

<https://therai.org.uk/conferences/art-materiality-and-representation/>

Royal Anthropological Institute

SOAS
University of London

The British
Museum